The Shadows of Power
by Perloff

Tragedy & Hope:
A History of the World in Our Time
by Quigley
Professor Carroll Quigley praises the efforts of an “international Anglophile network” whose goal is to rule the world. He boasts of having been permitted “to examine its papers and secret records,” confirms the existence of an overarching conspiracy, and details the origin and rise to power of the CFR and allied groups. How the Compact for America Threatens the Constitution — Reprint $0.02
The constitutional convention (Con-Con) proposed by the Compact for America Initiative would pose an unacceptably high risk of damage to the Constitution. This reprint provides the information needed to defeat this Con-Con initiative in state legislatures and Congress. This eight-page reprint by Joe Wolverton II, J.D. which originally appeared as the cover story in the January 21, 2013 issue of TNA — pgs. 10-16. (2013, 8pp, $0.02ea)

Let's Set the Record Straight — Reprint $0.50
In the controversy over whether to convene a constitutional convention (aka a convention of the states), many misconceptions or fabrications about the JBS's position regarding such a convention have been cast about as if they were factual. This reprint sets the record straight. This eight-page foreword from the JBS Bulletin by CEO Art Thompson originally appeared in the May 2015 issue. (2016, 8pp, 1-24/$0.50ea; 25-99/$.40ea; 100+/$.35ea)

Save the Constitution — Reprint $0.50
This educational tool is designed to inform state legislators and constitutionalist activists about how to save the Constitution by rescinding Article V convention applications. Such a constitutional convention would have the inherent power to alter or abolish the Constitution. This eight-page reprint by Larry Greenley originally appeared in the January 25, 2016 issue of TNA — pgs. 15-18. (2016, 8pp, 1-24/$0.50ea; 25-99/$.40ea; 100-999/$.35ea; 1,000+/$.30ea)
Solving the Debt Crisis — Reprint  $0.50
The solution to our debt crisis is for “We the People” to take our Republic back from the special interests by educating voters to enforce the Constitution, not by adding a Balanced Budget Amendment via an Article V Convention. This eight-page reprint by Larry Greenley originally appeared in the November 21, 2016 issue of TNA — pgs. 21-27. (2016, 8pp, 1-24/$0.50ea; 25-99/$.40ea; 100-999/$.35ea; 1000+/$.30ea)

The Article V Convention: What Are They Not Telling You? — DVD  $1.00 by JBS
This excellent 59-minute video has four parts: (1) 4 Conflicting Approaches; (2) What Article V Really Says; (3) The 1787 Precedent — 3 Indisputable Facts; and (4) Conclusion. This video is recommended for providing an up-to-date analysis of the Article V Convention issue for anti-Con-Con activists and for educating state legislators on the reasons to oppose all Article V Convention applications. (2015, 59min, 1-10/$1.00ea; 11-20/$0.90ea; 21-49/$0.80ea; 50-99/$0.75ea; 100-999/$0.70ea; 1,000+/$.64ea)

The New BBA Con-Con Threat — Reprint  $0.50
A Balanced Budget Amendment Article V Convention would be a threat to the Constitution because of its inherent power to be a runaway convention and the tendency of a BBA to move our nation from a republic to a democracy. This eight-page reprint by Larry Greenley originally appeared in the October 5, 2015 issue of TNA — pgs. 25-30. (2015, 8pp, 1-24/$0.50ea; 25-99/$.40ea; 100-999/$.35ea; 1,000+/$.30ea)

The Solution Is the Constitution, Not Article V — Reprint  $0.50
This educational tool presents three basic reasons why state legislators should vote against applications to Congress for an Article V convention. This 12-page reprint is adapted from a combination of articles from May 5, 2014 and the March 9, 2015 issues of The New American. (2015, 12pp, 1-24/$0.50ea; 25-99/$.40ea; 100+/$.35ea)

To Preserve the Nation — DVD  $1.00
Constitutional expert Scott Bradley explains why state legislatures should not apply to Congress to call an Article V Constitutional Convention for the purpose of proposing a Balanced Budget Amendment. (2014, 47 min., sleeved DVD, 1-10/$1.00ea; 11-20/$0.90ea; 21-49/$0.80ea; 50-99/$0.75ea; 100-999/$0.70ea; 1,000+/$.64ea)
What Will Balance The Budget? — DVD
by JBS
$1.00
With an unprecedented national debt of $20 trillion and the likelihood of continued unbalanced budgets, the country is only a handful of states away from the calling of an Article V Constitutional convention to consider proposing a Balanced Budget Amendment (BBA). Which side are you on in the debate over the calling of such a convention? This eight-minute animated video will help you decide. (2017, DVD), 1-10/$1.00ea; 11-20/$0.90ea; 21-49/$0.80ea; 50-99/$0.75ea; 100-999/$0.70ea; 1000+/$0.64ea)

Transforming the Way We Look at American History

Knowing American history is essential to understanding the American system of government and the role citizens are to play. When that education is undermined and replaced with the opposite of our Founders’ intent, the ramifications for protecting God-given liberty for current and future generations are great.

To the Victor Go the Myths & Monuments details a deliberate, organized opposition working to subvert the American Republic. It’s American history that all Americans need to learn so they can understand the proper role of government and their role in the American system.

The Real Face of the EU — DVD
by Day
This documentary produced by Phillip Day includes commentary from a member of the European Union (EU) Parliament and other EU analysts. It covers the history and goals of the EU, as well as the disturbing, irrevocable implications the EU continental government holds for every British citizen. With a similar process unfolding in America under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), Americans are starting to ask themselves if their elected officials should be allowed to go down the same path and create a North American Union. Who Is John Birch? — DVD by Loving
We know the Society, but do we know John Birch, the man, who was a missionary turned military spy? Follow the story of this Georgia boy, the child of Christian missionaries, who grew up with the desire to preach the “Word” to those in China and “save souls,” only to find himself helping save their country from Japanese occupation during World War II. Learn the intriguing escape of Jimmy Doolittle and the Tokyo Raiders in occupied China, and the important role John Birch, the missionary, played in leading them through enemy lines to safety. The Secret File on John Birch by Hefley
The biography of a Christian missionary and U.S. intelligence agent in China during World War II. The “complete” story of his life is told here for the first time owing to the declassification of essential documents. The U.S. government, for political reasons, kept the information in this book secret — particularly the facts about his murder by the Chinese Communists. (1995, 203pp, pb, 1-9/$16.95ea; 10+/14.95ea)

World Without Cancer

In this provocative book, author G. Edward Griffin compiles the evidence that cancer is the result of a dietary deficiency in a substance known as vitamin B-17. Purified for cancer treatment, this substance is also known as Laetrile. Could this substance be one of the keys to unlocking a cure for cancer? Treatment with Laetrile is banned by the FDA. Griffin poses the question of whether or not investigations into the efficacy of the substance have been stymied by entrenched interests in the healthcare industry. (1997ed, 368pp, pb, $16.95) Bkwg

The War on Cops $23.95
by MacDonald
The War on Cops expands on Mac Donald’s groundbreaking and controversial reporting on the Ferguson effect and the criminal-justice system. It deconstructs the central narrative of the Black Lives Matter movement: that racist cops are the greatest threat to young black males. On the contrary, it is criminals and gangbangers who are responsible for the high black homicide death rate.
